Dear Sirs:

Yours rec'd in reply desire to state that the ½ dol. '53 - looks as if it might have been changed from the one with the "rays" ii: that the arrows heads and rays have been removed, however I am not sure about this. If you desire I will send it to you for your inspection or still better

I will bring it to you some time next week when I expect to be in Phila. for a short stay. Regarding half cents, I have the following which I will dispose of.

1800 - 1	1807 - 1	1826 - 1
1803 - 4	1808 - 2	1828 - 2
1804 - 3	1809 - 2	1832 - 1
1806 - 3	1810 - 1	1834 - 1

1835 - 8	1855 - 4	Condition Good.
1850 - 1	1857 - 3
1853 - 1
1854 - 1	Total = 41 -

Also a 1798 dime in good shape. What will you give for the lot?

I have never received so much as an answer from Mr. Herrmann, to whom I sent the 1804 cent at $2.00. Have you ever mentioned the matter to him? I cannot understand why a man will belittle himself for such a small amount.

Trusting to hear from you soon, I remain

Yours truly, W. T. Runyan
